Tax Bill Sponsors Hold Fast Against House Amendments

Hopes for Revision of Measure Resting With Senate in Future

Washington, July 17—(AP)—Sponsors of the $6,143,900,000 wartime tax bill in the house held fast against any amendments from the floor today and many members said the only hope for revisions rested with the senate many weeks later.

Despite repeated calls for amendments, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the house ways and means committee, manager of the legislation, said that as far as he was concerned, the bill would pass on Monday in its present form.

During desultory debate yesterday, with only 40 or 50 members in their seats, speakers suggested that virtually every major provision of the measure be revised, ranging from corporation rates to removal of the present exemption from federal taxation on state and local securities.

The proposal to collect income taxes at the source, starting in January, provoked the most discussion. Here are some questions and answers on this innovation in the tax program, based on the committee's voluminous report to the house.

Questions, Answers

Q. What is the purpose of taking income taxes out of paychecks?

A. It will help individuals to spread payments on the heavier taxes through the year and thus meet the annual bill "with a minimum of strain."

Q. What effect might the scheme have on inflation?

A. It might help prevent runaway prices by restricting an individual's spending and by drawing.

379 Ships Have Sunk in Western Atlantic

By The Associated Press

Axis submarine torpedoings of two more United Nations ships, one a small British cargo vessel in the south Atlantic and the other a small Dutch merchant ship in the Caribbean, were announced by the navy today.

The losses, and three reported yesterday, two of which were American and one Norwegian, raised to 379 the unofficial Associated Press count of allied and neutral ships sunk in the western Atlantic since Pearl Harbor.

The U-boat which sank the British vessel the night of June 25 used one torpedo and 65 shells, survivors said. Two members of the 40-man crew drowned and a third died later in a lifeboat.

After nine days in two lifeboats and three rafts, the 37 survivors were picked up and landed at a south Atlantic port July 5.

The 29 survivors of the Dutch ship's crew of 31 were picked up three hours after the daylight attack on their vessel May 24 and were taken to a Caribbean port.

Strike at Pittsburgh Threatens Work on Vital Construction

Pittsburgh, July 17—(AP)—A walkout of members of AFL building trades unions threatened today to halt construction on more than $100,000,000 worth of war construction jobs in this steel and industrial center.

Business Agent W. D. Cashdollar of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters & Joiners said the walkout began yesterday, the workers protesting that the War Production Board refused to authorize a 25-cents-an-hour pay increase.

He said the walkout was unauthorized and spread so rapidly that all work on the vital projects in this area may be halted.

United States and Finland Are Near Open Break Today

Washington, July 17—(AP)—Finland and the United States were one move short of an open break in diplomatic relations today, with the Helsinki government preparing to close all its consular offices in this country in compliance with a Washington "request."

The state department, in disclosing last night that it had asked the Finnish government to discontinue its consular activities in the United States not later than August 1, announced that it already had cancelled the consular commissions of American consular officials in Finland and was closing "immediately" the consular section of the American legation in Helsinki.

The status of the American legation itself and that of the Finnish legation in Washington remain unchanged, but the ousting of the consulates was ominously reminiscent of a similar development in German-American relations. The closing of German consular offices in this country and of American consular offices in Germany was one of the preliminaries leading up to the final rupture and declaration of war.

Fourteen Finnish consulates on American soil will have to close, but actually few consular officials will go back to Finland, for most.

Young Fiddlers Plan Appeal to Roosevelt

Interlochen, Mich., July 17—(AP)—Young fiddlers of the National Music Camp, up in arms over the prospect of having to stay off the radio, came out with a challenge of their own today against union boss James C. Petrillo.

The students at the music school in the woods, where Bach and Beethoven rival the sounds of the forest, arranged a personal plea to President Roosevelt asking him to step into the controversy on their side.

As head of the American Federation of Musicians, Petrillo had forced the music camp's symphony orchestra off the National Broadcasting Company's network. He claimed a union contract with NBC forbids performances by amateurs.

Students at the camp, in a mass meeting last night, decided to send a direct appeal to President Roosevelt.

Blackout Practices Without Permission Prohibited by Oraer

Chicago, July 17—(AP)—Downstate communities have been ordered not to plan practice blackouts until air raid wardens and other civilian defense workers have been trained.

William F. Waugh, chairman of the State Defense Council's civil protection division, announced orders that blackout dates must be approved by this office and Army headquarters here.

With permission given, Jacksonville will hold a city-wide blackout tonight, he said. In addition to training of wardens, the cities must establish central control stations before blackouts can be held. In all cases, war production factories are exempted and emergency vehicles, such as ambulances, are permitted to run with lights on.

Will Fight Insurance of Girdles to WAAC

Hollywood, July 17—(AP)—Girdles for members of the women's army?

The California Models Guild thinks the government had just as well issue corsets to the marines.

The Guild is ready to battle the Women's Auxiliary Army Corps' plan to issue two girdles each to its members, and has already got around to passing a resolution.

"How do they expect to do a man's work in the confines of a girdle?" asks Dorothy Preble, Guild president. "If they eat and exercise properly, both of which they should do in the army, they won't need girdles. Think of the waste of rubber."

Polish Guerrillas Kill 50 German Policemen

London, July 17—(AP)—Reuters today quoted the Stockholm paper Ny Dag as reporting that 50 German policemen, including a local Gestapo chief named Wald, had been killed in a fight with Polish guerrillas at Lublin.

Army, FBI, Police Investigate Story of 'Chutes Landing

Six Reported Seen Descending Near Home of FDR Yesterday

Rhinecliff, N. Y., July 17—(AP)—Reports that various persons had seen descending parachutes came from several sections of the state today, following a long investigation of one such report here, but Army sources said they had been unable to verify any of them.

The army said that if and when any such reports were confirmed, they would be made public promptly.

The flurry started yesterday when six "parachutes" were reported seen descending in an area near President Roosevelt's Hyde Park estate.

A farm superintendent's unconfirmed report of sighting parachutes late yesterday afternoon brought a small army of military, FBI and state police officials to the scene but they postponed their search until daylight today after townsfolk advanced a theory the reported aerial objects probably were balloons sent aloft by a group celebrating a religious holiday.

Inspector William Schatzman of the Connecticut state police said investigators were trying to determine whether any fireworks celebrations were held in the area, as first reported, but added "so far we have not found that any such celebrations were held."

Red Planes Reported

One theory advanced was that the fireworks some persons said they heard about the time the alleged parachutes were reported sighted came from blasting operations in the vicinity.

Paul Stinson, superintendent of Lynnwood Farms, said, however, that he saw a plane with a red fuselage fly south over the area about the time the parachutes were reported.

Meanwhile, state police began a search of woodland in the town of Edinburg, Saratoga county, after Harley Tenant, a farmer, reported having heard a plane and a "distinct flapping noise, as though a parachute was flapping in the breeze."

For nine hours last night, Hudson valley residents and motorists within a radius of 50 miles were questioned as to whether they had

Orders Strikers in Detroit Be Jailed

Detroit, July 17—(AP)—Motor bus operators striking contrary to advice of their AFL union leaders, halted buses on Detroit's east side today, ejected the non-striking drivers and forced passengers to alight.

Many passengers, en route to jobs in war plants or office buildings, were left stranded as the buses that were operating were jammed to capacity.

Police received a general order to arrest on sight any one found interfering with the buses.

By midmorning Woodward avenue, broad "main stem" of Detroit's north-south transportation, was without street car service, as a group of about 300 men blocked tracks leading from the terminal in suburban Highland Park.

Mayor Edward J. Jeffries told officials of the publicly-owned transportation system:

"Fire every striker, every one of them. And let the men know that anybody who interferes with equipment will be thrown in jail and the key thrown away."

The strikers, employees of Detroit's department of street railways, are members of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway & Motor Coach Employees of America (AFL). They had complained about what they said was undue delay on wage arbitration proceedings.

Soldier Who Drinks Beer-Ketchup-Ice Cream-Pepper To Be Executed

Melbourne, July 17—(AP)—Private Edward J. Leonski, former New York City grocery clerk, was convicted by a United States military court today of the slaying of three Melbourne women and was condemned to death by hanging.

The 10-member tribunal debated barely 50 minutes before announcing its verdict, which is subject to review by the commanding general of the United States armed forces in Australia.

The stolid calm which Leonski had maintained during the five-day trial was unbroken by the death sentence. He smirked slightly as he was led from the courtroom under heavy guard.

He had been under arrest since mid-May, a few days after the body of Miss Gladys Hosking, 40, a university chemistry school secretary, was found near an Army camp.

The other victims were Mrs. Ivy Violet McLeod, 40, killed May 3, and Mrs. Pauline Thompson, 31, killed May 9. All three had been strangled.

Defense witnesses had described Leonski as a "psychopathic personality" who sometimes drank a mixture of beer, ketchup, ice cream and pepper.

Jittery

Somonauk, Ill., July 17—(AP)—Jittery citizens of this Fox river town have called in the police to combat some unseen nocturnal phantom, but the law so far hasn't been able to see it either.

Police Chief Elmer Darnitz agreed something queer has been going on the last three weeks. There have been strange windowappings in the dusk; doors have been opening mysteriously; and some folks have reported seeing a shadowy form flitting from tree to tree and sailing over fences.

Then Verne Jacobs, restaurant man, saw the apparition—a large man, he said, with long legs—vaporizing about his garden. He said he stepped into the yard and let go with both barrels of a shot gun. He couldn't have missed, he insisted, but the charge apparently passed through the wraith, because the only damage was to the garden.

Sheriff William Runnels of DeKalb county, told of the mysterious goings on, remarked:

"I wouldn't be surprised if the whole thing were caused by squirrels."

Discarded Records Will be Collected for "Fighting Men"

Beginning today and continuing for a period of two weeks, members of every post and auxiliary of the American Legion in Lee county will collect discarded phonograph records of every description. The collection in Lee county is part of a nation-wide drive to secure 37,500,000 old records, which will be sold as scrap. This disposition will be of material benefit in the war effort by adding to the supply of shellac which is no longer available.

The proceeds, which are expected to amount to about $937,500, will be used to purchase new records at factory cost, as well as players for the members of every post, camp, station, naval vessel, transport and wherever there are troops or sailors throughout the world.

Records for our Fighting Men, Inc., was organized in June by Kay Kyser, Kate Smith, Fritz Reiner, Sigmund Spaeth and Gene Autrey, which has received the recognition of the committee on War Relief Agencies. The American Legion organization is cooperating with this group of artists.

In Dixon, depository boxes will be placed in front of the Legion club rooms entrance and at the Chamber of Commerce offices where records, whole or broken, may be deposited. Members of the local Legion post will gather the discarded records and those desiring to have records called for may call Commander H. F. Walter, 1335 or Unit President, Mrs. Rae Arnold, B-564.

'18-19 Yr. Olds Not to Be Called Soon'—F.D.R.

Washington, July 17—(AP)—Although administration officials have been speaking repeatedly of the fact that this country always has called youths of 18 and 19 years to the colors in wartime, President Roosevelt told a press conference today that such a step was unlikely now. He said nothing need be expected on this matter at any time soon.

Roundabout

Glasgow, Mont., July 17—(AP)—Mrs. Carrie Piehl, who used to go to her ranch, 45 miles away, by wagon trail, longs for the good old days.

On her last trip, with the old wagon trail now under Fort Peck lake, she had to take a train to Culbertson, another to Sidney, a bus to Glendive, another train to Miles City, a bus to Jordan and a mail stage to Haxby.

The 402-mile trip took four days and cost $17.

"In some sectors of the Voronezh front the initiative has passed into soviet hands," the Russians declared in today's communique, reporting that the fight there had gone on through another night. "The Germans are on the defensive."

Carnage Continues

"In the Voronezh sector fighting continues with the same ferocity as before," the communique went on. "Numerous attempts of the enemy to press forward are failing. The battlefield is littered with German corpses and dozens of burned out enemy tanks."

Such was the story of Voronezh, the Germans' principal if not only bridgehead on the eastern, or Volga, side of the Don river, which the Germans more than a week ago claimed had fallen to them.

From May 15 to July 16, last night's special Moscow communique, the Germans lost in dead, injured and captives. No less than 900,000 troops against 359,000 the Red army. Of the German casualties 350,000 were said to be dead.

Nazis Brought to Bloody Standstill in Voronezh Battle

Stalin Reported To Be in Charge of Defense of Southern Front

BY CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH
Associated Press War Editor

The Germans, at a bloody standstill if not in actual difficulty before Voronezh, were reported today to be losing the initiative there, but further south, in a zone of deeper penetration eastward, they rolled like a tide across the waving Caucasian grain fields—perhaps a million strong.

The Russians, harassed from land and sky, fell back fighting, eastward toward Stalingrad on the Volga and southward toward Rostov on the Don.

At Voronezh, on the northern flank of this blazing, 300 mile front, the chance of a successful side diversion against the Caucasus offensive rested in the balance of a bloody struggle in which the Russians said they had cracked through two lines of their besiegers.

The battle of Russia was running to the Red army's favor in a nine-to-four ratio of manpower losses, according to official Russian statistics for the past two months of combat.

A roundabout report under German sponsorship said that Joseph Stalin, for whom Stalingrad was named, had joined the chief of the Russian general staff at the Volga city to take personal direction of the defense.

Subsidiary Developments

Subsidiary war developments elsewhere included:

Egypt—The British Eighth Army has been fighting off violent German-Italian attacks on newly won advance positions in the center of the El Alamein line and a small battle of armored forces still rages.

The axis forces were reported to have yielded slightly on the southern end of the El Alamein line while on the northern end British Imperials re-occupied their former positions on the lower ridge of the Hill of Suses, being already in control of the higher ground.

Britain-Germany—Sunset raids, combining of advantages of daylight for attack and the cover of night for return, were launched yesterday against Germany. British mammoth, four-motored Stirlings raided shipyards at Flensburg and attacked submarine building yards at Luebeck to halt reconstruction necessitated by a devastating assault on March 28. Both Flensburg and Luebeck are on the Baltic.

Reds Reinforced

The report that Stalin had taken charge at Stalingrad, according to word which reached Stockholm through German-controlled channels from "an absolutely reliable source in Ankara," was linked in the same dispatch with word that strong reinforcements from the "newly formed central Asiatic army" were concentrated there.

There was a chance that a defense of Stalingrad in its immediate environs may never be necessary. Two German spearheads, at least one of which is well inside the north Caucasian area at Millero, are still about 175 miles west and northwest of that major goal.

The fate of Voronezh on the exposed flank of the Germans' eastward bulge may in turn decide the fate of the German offensive further south.

"In some sectors of the Voronezh front the initiative has passed into soviet hands," the Russians declared in today's communique, reporting that the fight there had gone on through another night. "The Germans are on the defensive."

Carnage Continues

Union Brawl Ends in Death of Woman, Two Men Wounded

Home of Painters' Union Leader Invaded; His Wife Shot Fatally

Chicago, July 17—(AP)—Two losses of Chicago's brawling painters' union were wounded and the wife of one of them was killed in an exchange of gunfire early today.

Mrs. Loretta Youngblood, 39, was dying of a bullet wound in the breast when police arrived at her west side house at 2227 W. Monroe street. In another room, shot through the right arm, was her husband, Charles, one of the leaders of local 147 and a member of the Painters' District Council.

Detective Marvin Nelson said the Youngbloods told him they had been shot by Arthur Wallace, secretary and treasurer of the Painters' District Council No. 14.

About an hour after the Youngbloods were fired upon, Wallace was found lying on the lawn of the Franklin Boulevard hospital. He had been shot in the abdomen, but police said he refused to tell them who wounded him.

Both Shot Before

Piecing together the events preceding the shootings, police learned that Youngblood and Wallace had attended a meeting of the council last night and had been seen talking together quietly. Later the Youngbloods visited a tavern.

They had been home about five minutes, Nelson said Youngblood told him, when the doorbell rang. Mrs. Youngblood answered it, and they came in.

Apparently the shooting began at once, Nelson said. There were 10 bullet marks around the chair in which Youngblood had been sitting. Nearby was a .38 calibre pistol with four empty cartridges in it. A bullet of the same calibre fell out of Wallace's clothing when he was examined at the hospital, police said.

Capt. Daniel Gilbert, chief investigator for the state's attorney's office, commented that Youngblood, 53 years old, had been "a bone of contention" in the union for some time.

The Youngbloods were shot once before by unidentified gunmen who ambushed them in a park street the night of March 5, 1939.

Lana Turner Elopes With Stock Broker

Hollywood, July 17—(AP)—Lana Turner eloped by air to Las Vegas, Nev., with Stephen Crane, former New York and Chicago stock broker, today and reports are rife that Linda Darnell and publicity agent Alan Gordon, who accompanied them, would make it a double ceremony.

Lana's studio said it never had heard of Crane but Gordon's agency said Lana had known him for years, been his frequent companion four months. Crane asked the big question while dancing last night, Lana answered affirmatively and they quickly agreed upon the flight.

Crane, 27, was born in Crawfordsville, Ind., and was graduated from Butler University. He came here two years ago with a merchandizing firm. He is divorced from Carole Kurtz, Indianapolis society girl.

The War Today!

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst
(Telegraph Special Service)

There can be no dispute with the assertion by Major General Zhuravlev, military expert for the Moscow News, that "the German command is trying to defeat the Red army before a second front can be opened in Europe", although that isn't the only reason for Herr Hitler's speed.

Moreover, it's doubtful if there are many experts who wouldn't say that the front ought to be opened in the near future—if feasible. This column said as much yesterday, but also emphasized that the question of just when such a colossal and perilous operation is practicable, must be decided by the allied high command.

This second-front problem, involving as it does a water-borne invasion, presents more difficulties than a porcupine does quills. The fact that the allied leadership hasn't yet attempted an invasion of western Europe ought to make it clear that thus far it hasn't been possible. Our eagerness to help gallant Russia in her magnificent stand, and to smash Genghis Hitler, shouldn't be allowed to upset our perspective. After all, the allied command is just as anxious to win this war as is the man in the street.

I am reverting to this subject again because it strikes me that the public pressure which is being aimed at all the allied governments to compel an opening of a second front is a dangerous thing. The governments already have agreed that this front shall be opened as soon as feasible, and this is no time for civilians to try to force the hands of military leaders. When a surgical operation is to be performed you call in a specialist—and military decisions must be left to the professional soldiers.

Personally I've had a strong hunch recently that it wouldn't be long before there was an allied invasion of western Europe. That feeling, which still persists, isn't based on official information—it's just a hunch. However, if

Case Against Four Spies Is Completed

Washington, July 17—(AP)—The prosecution completed its case today against four of the eight submarine-landed nazis on trial before a military commission here.

These four were those who landed on Long Island.

Still to be completed is the prosecution's case against the four who landed in Florida.

Major General Frank R. McCoy, president of the military commission, made the announcement of progress and also said that the reading of a long document begun yesterday afternoon was completed at this morning's session.

Meanwhile U. S. attorneys in three districts drafted formal charges against 10 of the 14 persons recently apprehended as accomplices of the men on trial here.

Convicted Killer and His Family Throw Courtroom Into an Uproar

Chicago, July 17—(AP)—John Pantano, 20, and his family, threw the courtroom of Judge Harold G. Ward into wild disorder last night when a jury condemned Pantano to a murderer's death in the electric chair.

The doomed man twice broke from his guards, a deputy bailiff's glasses were broken in five minutes of fighting, women screamed hysterically, and the jurors and prosecutors were escorted to their home under protection of police squads.

No sooner had the jury announced its verdict convicting Pantano of murdering Policeman Charles Williams during a tavern robbery Dec. 10, 1941, when the defendant's twin brother, Tony, ran toward him, screaming and swinging his arms.

Any Call for Wage Stabilization Will Start Bitter Fight

Henderson Will Be in Center of Agitation, Leaders Predict

Washington, July 17—(AP)—The whole problem of inflation and wage controls is under study, President Roosevelt told a press conference today, but he said no decision had been reached on the time when he might make definite recommendations to congress.

The basis of all policy on this problem, he asserted, is keeping the cost of living from going up.

Asked his reaction to War Labor Board's recommendation that workers in Little Steel companies receive an additional 44 cents a day, equivalent to a 5 1/2 per cent raise, the president remarked that for an article like steel a 5 per cent increase would not force up the living cost nearly so much as would a similar raise in a canning factory, for instance.

The whole thing is relative, he declared, and, he said, the whole thing must be kept as much in line as possible in all industries.

Likewise under study, he declared, is the question whether the projected wage increase for the Little Steel industry could be ab-

INTEREST AT CAMP RALSTON CENTERS ABOUT TURTLE EGGS, DRAMATICS, ART, HAY RIDE

With 34 girls from seven cities on the grounds, Camp John Ralston has been a bee hive of activity this week. Dixon, as well as Belvidere, Prophetstown, Sterling, Rock Falls, Morris and Chicago are represented by the current group.

The Pioneer unit has been working on a wash stand and tool case for their outdoor kitchen, where they cook breakfast and supper at the new Edith Macy fireplace. Other highlights have been the enjoyment of jam which they have made from wild gooseberries gathered on the camp site, a hike to the Rock river, and labeling of all trees and shrubs within the unit grounds.

The Daddy-Long-Legs unit has been occupied with construction of tin can stools, modeling clay pottery, wading, discovery of a turtle's nest containing 14 eggs, dramatizing original interpretations of ballads and songs, assuming full responsibility for the camp's color ceremony, fashioning newspaper waste baskets, fishing (for minnows) in Clear creek, designing spatter prints of leaves, a hike to the Indian mounds west of the camp, and gathering fresh bouquets of wild flowers for the tables each day.

A hayrack ride and barn dance is to be a special event for the campers this evening. All of the campers are to appear in costume. Identification of trees and flowers to be found in the meadows and wooded section of the camp has been of special interest to the girls, who find a fascinating new project to pursue every day.

This week's contingent of campers includes: Dixon—Martha Ann McNichols, Jean Alice Carkhuff, Shirley Barrowman, Donna Jeiss, Anne Beamblossom, Carroll Heckman, Ann Chapman, Sylvia Schuler, Francelle Mick, Janice Jensen, Margaret Scanlan, Mary Lee Scales, Beverly Billinger, Elsie Mae Bunnell, Sarah Lynn McNichols, Marilyn Lievan, Patricia Billinger, Joyce Johnson.

WAAC QUESTIONNAIRE GIVES OPPORTUNITY FOR ANALYSIS

Applicants for enrollment in the Women's Army Auxiliary corps—the only women's organization, exclusive of the Army Nurse corps, authorized to serve with the United States army—will find themselves faced with the problem of probing deep into their own personalities when it comes to answering the questions Uncle Sam wants to ask them before permitting them to don military uniforms for noncombatant service.

First of all, the WAAC questionnaire that is found attached to the application form wants to know, "Do you make friends easily?" and comes right back with a second query, "Do you keep them?" and from there, goes on to the question: "Do you have a number of friends, or do you incline to a limited number?"

Additional information sought in the analysis will be gleaned from answers to the remainder of the 14 searching questions, as follows:
4. Do you talk over your problems with your friends, or do you keep them to yourself?
5. Do you work well with other people?
6. Describe briefly an occasion when you worked with others.
7. Do you prefer working regularly or sporadically?
8. Are you even-tempered?
9. How do you feel about it when accused of shortcomings?
10. Are you thorough?
11. Do you finish details?
12. Are you absent-minded?
13. Are you frequently misunderstood and misjudged?
14. Are you reasonably neat and clean?

I. N. U. Men Go Upstream for Ride and Steak Supper

With Carl Buchner, Jr. leading the way in his launch, the "Lexington," 54 "skippers" and passengers in 15 boats formed a noisy flotilla for a hilarious ride upstream last evening to attend the steak fry planned for men employees of the Illinois Northern Utilities company and invited guests. The "Lexington," carrying Ted Legner, Leo Finn and Herbert Wadsworth and the party supplies, docked about a mile and a half beyond Lowell park. Fred Meinke, aboard his "Lazy Daze", was the last to arrive, after losing an unofficial race, as well as a water battle, with James McClanahan, in spite of the former's boasts that he had "run circles around Jim every 100 yards all the way."

Perhaps the highlight of the evening occurred when an anxious farmer charged down on the group on a tractor to inquire who his unexpected visitors might be.

The motor on Arnold La Cour's Sea King became overheated and his boat had to be towed both upstream and down. Joe Berry was a passenger in the La Cour boat. Bill Thompson and Fred Sieck went for a swim in the Rock, before supper.

Alternating at the grills during the evening were Fred Meinke, who was the party chairman, Leo Finn, Lloyd Lewis, Carl Buchner, and Bill Thompson. The group went aboard at Potter's dock about 6 o'clock, arriving at the supper site an hour later, and started downstream again at 9, arriving at 10—with the exception of the "Lexington," which is said to have required an additional 90 minutes for the trip.

All in all, the party was considered a huge success, and the guests are hoping that it can be made an annual event.

More About Rubber

President Roosevelt is to be commended for bringing the rubber situation clearly into the open, by his warning that civilian tires may have to be requisitioned.

With the authority of his position he voiced what experts have been saying for months.

Faced with the distinct possibility of a shortage so critical that even the barest of military and essential civilian needs may not be met next year and in 1944, why should civilians be permitted to wear out existing tires in non-essential use?

Nation-wide rationing of gasoline has been advocated to save rubber. If nothing more courageous can be done, that would help.

But those who live in the oil-rich midwest and southwest, and on the Pacific coast, do not like such half measures.

If they are going to be permitted to wear out tires they now have they see no reason they should not do it in their own way.

If, on the other hand, Uncle Sam needs their tires to help win the war, they inquire why he doesn't come clean and ask for them. Many from the oil states have told us they would willingly give their tires, if that is needed, but that they'll squawk to high heaven if they are permitted to keep the tires, but are denied gasoline for their cars.

We believe the farm belt, worried about its surplus wheat and corn, would prove equally patriotic if Washington officially would explain clearly why it is more efficient militarily to make most of our synthetic rubber from petroleum rather than from grain alcohol.

The synthetic rubber bottleneck is in butadiene, one of the two major constituents of buna type rubber.

Butadiene is a byproduct of gasoline refining. It can be made at the existing refineries. We don't have to wait for a major construction program, or find money for it, or divert steel and copper for it, or tie up transportation facilities.

Up to the limit of the existing distillery capacity, we can rush into butadiene production from grain alcohol. This the government is planning.

Beyond that we have to decide whether speed in getting rubber for critical uses, in obtaining steel and copper for armament and munitions, are more important than using the farmers' grain.

Uncle Sam thinks that, with Hitler making an all-out play to win the war, speed is vital. If he explained why, officially, as his experts want the newspapermen to explain unofficially, we have no doubt that both motorists and farmers would say:

"Sure. Let's win the war and worry about our troubles later."

Sound Argument

The folks outside the gasoline rationing area have a sound argument when they say, in effect: "If it is rubber they want to save, how about just taking the tires? Why let us wear them out bit by bit, controlled through gasoline rationing, if we prefer to do our non-essential driving all at once and then walk or ride horses until the war is over?"

Experts admit that the straightforward course, and the efficient one, would be to expropriate what mileage remains in tires and use it for the good of the nation. But that is a risky course, perhaps foolhardy politically. So the problem won't be solved that way. Nation-wide gasoline rationing will be tried, instead.

Guarding the Coastline

McClelland Barclay is a lieutenant-commander in the naval reserve, better known for his magazine covers and other artistic products. Also, he is a dog lover, and has been doing a series of posters to publicize the use of dogs in the war.

Barclay has come up with an idea that seems well worth considering. Obviously, we can't assign enough men to watch all the lonely spots where nazi saboteurs could land from submarines. Barclay suggests that trained dogs, in shelters at intervals of a quarter-mile, with a cost guardman for every three miles, would prove invaluable as sentries on the coast.

There may be objections which do not occur to us. Still, the idea should not be dismissed lightly.

Business Before Pleasure

The German notion that a "gentlemen's agreement" banned air raids on London and Berlin was too foolish to require the British denial that came promptly. "Gentlemen's agreements" aren't made with Germans or Japanese.

The real reason Berlin hasn't been bombed in more than a year is, of course, that the RAF has more pressing business demolishing the nazi productive plant, and Berlin is a long way off.

Let us hope that corresponding reasons lie behind Jimmy Doolittle's failure to bomb the Imperial Palace in Tokyo, when the wheels of his plane almost skimmed its roof. The report that a poetic gentleman has argued successfully against bombing Hirohito, on the theory that the Japs then might reciprocate against the White House, we trust is a Washington pipe dream.

Flying Tigers

Certainly no group of men has ever earned better the privilege of coming home from a fighting front, to visit their families, than General Chennault's Flying Tigers.

Going as volunteers to a most unpleasant situation, with inadequate equipment, outnumbered, they did one of the outstanding aerial combat jobs in history. Now a few have joined our official air forces, while others have come home.

We do not believe that such men will long be content with the placid tenor of civilian life over here. We shall be amazed if most of them are not back shooting down Japs before long.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, July 16—One day last week, the farm lobbyists trooped unobserved into a closed session of a senate appropriations sub-committee. In line they came, representatives of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the Grange, the U. S. live stock group. The newspapers did not find out about it.

Next day a peculiar amendment loaded with poison arrows for Leon Henderson, the price administrator, appeared strangely in the annual appropriation bill for the Office of Price Administration which the sub-committee had been handling. This amendment said Henderson shall not fix the price ceiling on farm products—or even processed goods, like cotton shirts and leather shoes—which does not reflect 110 per cent of parity back to the farmers.

Everyone said it was merely a restatement of existing law, but no one bothered to explain why the farm lobbyists felt it necessary to restate such a law in an appropriation bill dealing with other matters. To the initiated in this peculiar political farm business, however, it was evident that the farm lobbyists had set out to break up Henderson's price policy.

The amendment would cause Henderson to abandon his present program, re-open thousands of price items in the farm and process schedules, and this time follow Agriculture Secretary Wickard's direction to fix much higher prices than now allowed—prices which would give the farmer that 110 per cent parity index.

The farm lobbyists and their congressional bloc felt justified in playing this and other little tricks on Henderson, because he had not followed the law they wrote for him in the first place. They feel tricked too.

Some months ago they succeeded in enacting provisions which they thought would give Agriculture Secretary Wickard veto power over Henderson and would assure the farmer his 110 per cent.

Roosevelt stopped that by ominously informing the world in general (but particularly Wickard) that Wickard worked for him and would be expected to follow his wishes. Henderson never consulted Wickard on anything except wool at the outset and later on fruits and vegetables.

Lately, Wickard has rejoined hands with farm lobbyists and is supposed to be working on Roosevelt's belief that such a permanent step would put all private trading out of business.

On the other hand and in the other corner, Henderson is mad as a hornet. He is particularly angry at Wickard for having written him the recent letter forcing him to boost the prices on dried and canned fruits, which he had set to reflect less than 110 per cent parity. He held an off-the-record press conference to vent his anger. Some of the words he used were hotter than the American airmen customarily employ when they go into a dive on a Jap ship.

All this back and forth news devolves down into the issue of whether the administration's price program will be allowed to start. There is some justice in the arguments on both sides.

The farmers' goal for years has been 100 per cent parity, and now that the war has brought it in sight, the farm bloc seems greedy in seeking the 110 per cent. Yet the average farm income is much less than the nation's average. Farm labor costs are practically doubled and a shortage exists.

Furthermore, the administration has let labor break through its economic ceiling in some few lines and is supposed to be about to increase the whole labor scale in the "Little Steel" test case.

But as far as justice to all the people is concerned, it is obvious that a breakdown of the Henderson effort at this early date would hoist the nation into a dangerous inflationary realm. Prices would be forced up abnormally by either farm or labor concessions and start a destruction of values, the end of which no one can perceive.

Only one decision is possible for Roosevelt if he wants to protect the interests of all. He must stop both the farm and labor blocs.

State Senator in Army Resigns from Legislative Post

Springfield, Ill., July 17—(AP)—State Senator Elmer H. Droste (R-Mt. Olive) today resigned his senate seat for the 38th district, declaring it would be impossible for him to obtain leave from his duties as a lieutenant colonel in the Army's tank force to attend legislative sessions.

Droste, who was elected in 1940, was called into the Army in July, 1941, and was assigned to the Fifth Armored division at Fort Knox, Ky. He recently was transferred to Fort Smith, Ark.

The senator obtained a leave of absence last winter to attend the Illinois general assembly's special session, but he said in a telegram of resignation that "the war department decrees that members of legislative bodies now in the armed forces can no longer obtain leave to attend legislative sessions."

Aides of Governor Green said that a special primary election in the 38th district probably would be scheduled for Sept. 21, with the senate election to be held in connection with the regular state-wide election Nov. 3. Counties in the district are Macoupin, Montgomery, Green and Jersey.

The telegram of resignation was sent by Droste to Macoupin County Clerk Elmer Weidner at Carlinville, and copies were received by Governor Green and Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes.

Negro Singer Says He Was Beaten by Rome, Ga. Officers

Calhoun, Ga., July 17—(AP)—Roland Hayes, famed Negro tenor, said at his farm home here today that he had been beaten and jailed by police in Rome, Ga., after his wife was asked to leave a shoe store.

The 55-year-old concert singer, who maintains a farm near this north Georgia community, said the incident occurred last Saturday and that both he and his wife were placed in a cell after he returned to the shoe store "to rectify any trouble."

Chief of Police Charles I. Harris denied that Hayes was beaten by police and added that a $50 bond posted by the singer for his release had been returned. Harris said no case had been made against Hayes.

The slightly-built Negro said his wife went into a Rome shoe store Saturday to buy a pair of shoes for their daughter, Africa. He said a clerk asked her to move from a front seat to one nearer the back.

Reminded of Rules
In Rome, Fred Higgins, manager of the Higgins shoe store, said he reminded Hayes' wife of rules governing segregation of Negroes in public places.

"When she continued talking loudly," Higgins said, "I asked her to go elsewhere to buy. As she left the store she told the clerk who asked her to move back 'Hitler ought to get you'."

The singer said he then went to the store, "to rectify any trouble that might have been caused." He said a policeman caught him by the belt, dragging him back into the store as he sought to leave.

Stating that his wife was then accused of cursing, Hayes said he told the manager his wife did not curse.

"When I said that," Hayes continued, "a man not in officer's clothing gave me all he had on the jaw. Then I was dragged to a patrol car and handcuffed between two officers. I was struck again by this man not in uniform."

"Negroes Can Play in Big Leagues"—Landis

Chicago, July 17—(AP)—(AP)—Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis affirmed today that there is no rule against the hiring of Negro players in big league baseball.

Judge Landis spoke of baseball's open door policy yesterday after Manager Leo Durocher of Brooklyn had been called to his office to explain an article in the Daily Worker which said he had hinted that Negroes were not permitted to play in the big leagues.

The commissioner said he had told Durocher that there was no rule, "formal or informal, or any understanding, unwritten, subterranean or sub-anything" against hiring of Negroes. He said the possibility of Negroes playing in the major leagues was up to the club owners.

"A manager can have one or 25 Negroes if he cares to," Landis said.

The commissioner said Durocher denied having stated that Negroes were barred from the big leagues.

June Lend-Lease Was $708,000,000

Washington, July 17—(AP)—President Roosevelt disclosed today that lend-lease assistance to the United Nations and other countries eligible for aid reached $708,000,000 in June, the highest monthly total yet.

This compared with $662,000,000 in May and brought the total since lend-lease assistance was inaugurated, March 11, 1941, to $5,205,000,000.

The president told a press conference that of this latter sum, 59 per cent was accounted for by goods actually transferred, that is, exported or at points of embarkation in this country. Articles in process of manufacture accounted for 24 per cent and services here and abroad represented 17 per cent.

Ziller Has Date in Court to Furnish Bonds of $19,000

Bloomington, Ill., July 17—(AP)—Giant George W. Ziller has a date in court today—to post $19,000 in bonds on confidence game and conspiracy charges—while his attorney laid plans to seek the transfer of the case to another county.

Defense Attorney Joseph A. Londrigan said he would ask the change of venue on the ground that McLean county residents were prejudiced against Ziller because of the wide publicity given to the recent grand jury investigation into charges that he collected fees from laborers and truckers in return for jobs at ordnance plants in the Joliet area. The motion could be filed within 30 days.

"Such a motion would not question the fairness of the judges in the circuit, but would contend that the inhabitants of the county are so prejudiced against Ziller that he could not receive a fair trial in this county," Londrigan explained.

Arranges for Bonds

Ziller arranged to come here today from Springfield to submit to arrest on five indictments charging he obtained sums ranging from $25 to $350 from men who got ordnance plant construction jobs in 1941. Bonds totalling $19,000 were fixed yesterday by Circuit Judge William C. Radloff.

Judge Radloff issued arrest warrants returnable July 27 for three men indicted with Ziller on charges of conspiracy to obtain money by false pretenses. One true bill charged Russell Brandt and John Mients, both of Weston, Ill., and officers of a Democratic political club, "corruptly conspired" to collect $25 membership fees from club members. The other conspiracy indictment named Ziller and Zepha Gullion of Watseka, Ill.

Three indictments charging operation of a confidence game named Ziller alone.

Attorney Londrigan indicated his motion for a change of venue would be the first defense move. Another preliminary motion probably attack validity of the indictments, the attorney indicated.

Chet Laabs of St. Louis Slams Two Homers to Beat Athletics

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The biggest batting spree of the season is now being staged by little Chet Laabs of the St. Louis Browns and brother, when he hits people forget all about the complaint that the ball is dead this year.

In the last six days he has hit four home runs and driven in 16 tallies with amazing raids at New York, Boston and Philadelphia. His total production all last year for the Browns was 15 homers and 59 runs batted in, but with his recent surge he already has brought his mark for this season to 15 circuit clouts and 58 runs driven in.

Laabs started his chain of fire-crackers against the Yanks last Saturday with a two-run homer off Ernie Bonham in the ninth.

Yesterday he drove in four runs to beat the Athletics again, hitting two homers, each with a mate aboard, to help Al Hollingsworth win 5-1. Laabs' impetus has boosted the Browns to an even .500 percentage and a tie with the Detroit Tigers for fourth place.

Detroit stumbled to its fifth straight defeat and eighth in nine games last night at Washington. The Tigers made six errors and lost 6-5 in ten innings even though the Senators were held to five hits. One of them was George Case's single for the deciding run.

In the meantime the New York Yankees boosted their first place margin to 7½ games by belting the Cleveland Indians 8-5 while the Chicago White Sox nosed out Boston 3-2. Ernie Bonham pitched seven-hit ball for the Yanks' fifth straight triumph, but served up homers to Les Fleming and Oris Hockett.

Schmitz Pitches
At Chicago the wrought-up Chicago Cubs and Brooklyn Dodgers divided a doubleheader in approximately five hours of paying strict attention to baseball. The Cubs made 14 hits and took their first contest 7-0 with Lon Warneke helping Lefty John Schmitz in the ninth.

Then Brooklyn battled back in the nightcap to win 2-1 when Arky Vaughan pinch signed, Pete Reiser doubled and Joe Medwick singled to account for two runs in the seventh after Lou Stringer had homered for Chicago in the fifth. John Allen and Hugh Casey combined to hold the Cubs to seven hits.

Mel Ott shook up his New York Giants at Pittsburgh, sending reserve first baseman Babe Young to centerfield for the first time in his life, and old Carl Hubbell confounded up a four-hit pitching masterpiece that stopped the Pirates 3-1. It was Hub's third win and he had a two-hit shutout till the ninth.

The Phils, led by Danny Littwhiler, who batted in three runs and scored twice, topped the St. Louis Cardinals 4-3 in ten innings. Cincinnati took a 7-6 decision from the Boston Braves, even though Ernie Lombardi hit his second homer in two days and made three other safeties against his old teammates.

SPRINGFIELD'S STREAK ENDED

By The Associated Press
Springfield's four-game winning streak in the Three Eye league came to an end in the first game of a double-header last night, but the Browns got back to winning ways when the evening's play was ended.

Springfield lost the opener to Decatur, 7 to 6, the Commodies pulling out the victory with two runs in the sixth inning, their last time at bat. In the second game the Browns rapped out a 10-hit assault and won, 7 to 2.

Cedar Rapids cut a half-game off Springfield's lead by winning a single game from Waterloo, 8 to 0. Seghi hit two home runs and Prazier and Kahn one apiece for the Raiders.

Madison and Evansville divided a double-header. The Blues took the first, 5 to 1, scoring four runs in the last frame to break a 1 to 1 tie, and the Bees annexed the second, 3 to 2.

Sports Poll

By ORTMAN

Come on folks! After that "wonderful" start Wednesday you have bogged down. Only 52 more votes were received yesterday for Miller and Ankeny on the College All-Star football team which will oppose the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field, August 28.

The total number of votes which these boys have garnered to date is exactly 153. Knock off those three and what have you got—150. And 150 votes are only a starter, and not a good one at that. There are only nine days left until the polls close at midnight, July 26. At the rate of 50 votes a day, Dixon's eligibles will have received 450 votes when the final count is made. That is ridiculous.

Readers of the Dixon Evening Telegraph in Dixon alone, number approximately 13,000. This is figuring 3300 families in Dixon with an average of four persons to a family. And that is Dixon alone. Besides that the Telegraph goes into every community in the county. Before the polls close something like 20,000 votes should be received by these boys.

And after five days of balloting, 153 votes have been sent in—two of them came from Spring Valley and Chicago.

The ballot still appears in the upper right hand corner of this paper. Use it! Fill in the dotted lines with your name, address and names of college stars. Take back issues of the paper and cut out a ballot for each member of the family—father, mother, son, daughter, grandmother and Uncle Elbie.

If you just wish to vote for Miller and Ankeny alone, merely write in your name and address.

Petitions, on which twenty-five names (25 votes) can be signed are available at the Evening Telegraph. Also many of these petitions have been placed in business houses. If you want to, go into one of the following stores and sign your name to the petition:

Myers and Nolan, Vaile's Pool Hall, Sterling's Pharmacy, Manhattan Cafe, Fanelli's Confectionery, United Cigar Store, Tony's Soda Grill, Duling's Tavern, Ideal Cafe, Ford Hopkins Drug Store, Covert's Cigar Store, The Round-up, Snow White Bakery, Ted Talty's Tavern, Doug's Three Deuces, Howard Hall's Appliances, Phillips Bake Shop, Potts' Meat Market, Family Liquor Store, Dixon Hotel and Railway Express Agency. There will probably be other stores added to this list as the voting progresses.

VOTE TODAY, EVERYONE!

Standings in the fans' balloting were relatively unchanged today but every position, with the exception of center where Jenkins holds a commanding lead over Banonis, close battles are developing.

Only three of the leaders yesterday have slipped today. Dudley of Virginia, highest scoring back in the nation last year, and second in yesterday's halfback race, has just barely slipped into the lead today with less than a hundred vote margin over Notre Dame's Steve Juzwik. And close on Juzwik's tail are James Richardson of Marquette and Bruce Smith of Minnesota.

Both Mal Kutner of Texas and Bob Fitch of Minnesota have overtaken John Kovatch of Notre Dame, leader yesterday in the race for end position. In fourth place, only 3500 votes back of the leader, Kutner, is Rockhurst's star end, Scanlon.

Wallach of Missouri has slipped behind Bauman of Northwestern and Blozis of Georgetown in the tackle department. However, the difference between first and third place is only 500 votes.

Missouri's star guard, Bob Jeffries, still leads in that race. Marquette's Bill Fugate, Tom Melton of Purdue, and Bernie Crimmins of Notre Dame, trail Jeffries in that order.

The fight for the quarterback position between the Northwestern pair, Kruger and Erditz, is still as fierce as ever with Kruger maintaining his slight lead. There have been 35,000 more votes cast for each of these boys than have been cast for any other player.

Westfall of Michigan is still No. 1 man in the fullback race but overnight, Marquette's Doug Renzel slipped into second place over Graf of Ohio State and is only 1000 votes back of the leader.

DUCK HUNTING OPENS IN ILL. ON OCTOBER 15

Season to Last Seventy Days; Hours From Sunrise to Set

Washington, July 17.—(AP)—Federal migratory birdhunting regulations today provided for a 70-day shooting season on ducks instead of the 60 days permitted in 1941 as Interior Secretary Ickes noted a vast increase in numbers of the fowl.

Duck hunting in the northern zone, which includes Wisconsin, Ohio and Michigan, will begin Sept. 26 and Oct. 15 in the intermediate zone which embraces Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas.

Duck hunting hours will run from sunrise to sunset, instead of from sunrise to 4 p. m. as formerly, and legally killed birds may be possessed for 30 days after the close of season, instead of 20 days.

Regulations governing bag and possession limits of ducks remain unchanged except that a new provision makes the possession limit on the first day of hunting conform to the daily bag limit.

Ickes, however, tightened rules for the protection of geese, doves and other birds that have not increased in population.

Regulations reduced the bag limits on geese and included other special safeguards, since the investigations had shown a decline in goose populations other than the blue geese.

Goose shooting seasons, zones, shooting hours and methods of hunting are the same as for ducks, except that in Alexander county, Ill., only a 60-day season on geese was provided—October 15 to December 13.

The daily bag limit on geese and brant is two, but in addition four of the more abundant blue geese may be taken in a day. If blue geese only are taken the bag limit is six. Canada geese are protected with a two-day bag limit.

Mourning doves may be taken from sunrise to sunset from September 1 to 30 in Illinois and Missouri.

WILL ORGANIZE ASHTON TEAMS

Any Ashton boys or girls who are interested in playing twilight softball should report at Kersten field at 8:00 o'clock tonight.

Plans are under way to organize a four-team league. The only eligibility factor is age; applicants must not be more than eighth graders in school (those who just graduated from the eighth grade this spring are eligible.)

Eligible players are to bring their gloves with them when they report and they should have in mind four persons whom they would like to see act as captains of the four teams. Anyone who wants to play but will be unable to report this evening should hand in their names to George B. Stephan or Clifford Schafer who will see that they are placed on one of the teams.

LAZIER, SMITH WIN AT OREGON

Dr. Lazier and Floyd Smith, Dixon, Hesel, Kaufman and Fisher, Oregon, were the prize winners in the 18-hole three-way match between the Dixon Country club, Rochelle and Oregon at the Rock River Country club in the latter town yesterday.

Each of these men won with special blind bogey scores; there were no medal prizes or team prizes awarded.

For each nine holes played there was a number between 45 and 55 and 35-45 drawn from a hat. These numbers were the blind bogey scores. The player or players recording these particular scores were awarded prizes.

For example the number selected between 45-55 was 54. This score was awarded by Kaufman, Lazier, Smith and Hesel all had 43's to win the other nine hole bogey prize. Fisher received his award for matching a blind bogey score for the eighteen hole round. This score is unavailable.

Although he received nothing for his efforts, Stanley Jaworski, Rochelle pro, had the low medal score, matching par with a 35-37—72. His score would have been a couple of strokes lower had he not shot a six on the eighteenth hole.

Dixon's Ken Detweller was 2 strokes back of Jaworski with 38—74. Russ Lamb of Oregon was in third place with 38-37—75 and fourth went to the Oregon pro, Vrona, with 36-41—77.

Eight players from Dixon made the trip to Oregon, six less than had signified they would attend. The players from here who competed were Detweller, Lazier, Don Raymond, Smith, Gundar Torsten, Carl Plovmann, Peeewe Myers and Joe Miller. Only four came from Rochelle, so 12 Oregon members played to make the foursomes complete.

PASSEAU WILL OPPOSE BUMS AGAIN TODAY

Trouble Brews as Cubs, Dodgers Go Into Last Game

Chicago, July 17.—(AP)—With the big mid-July feud of the Cubs and Dodgers standing at one round for Brooklyn and two even, the Chicagoans chose today to lead again with their strong right arm, Claude Passeau.

It was Big Pass, the major league's leading game winner with 13, who was cuffed off the mound in less than three innings by the Bums on Wednesday, and Manager Jimmy Wilson figured he'd use the long-jawed right-hander in an effort to salvage a split in the four-game series with the National League champs.

Yesterday both sides bandaged the wounds suffered in the opening day's hostilities and played baseball according to the basic double-day plan, thereby dividing a double-header. But tongues were sharp on both sides.

Bithorn Sore
"That Bithorn got pretty hot. Maybe he just can't take it," said the Dodgers' manager, Leo Durocher, finding it a little difficult to smile.

His face muscles ached from the verbal blistering he gave Hi Bithorn, the Cubs' Puerto Rican hurler, in Wednesday's game, and the rest of his body from the exertion of ducking an extra-curricular pitch Bithorn zoomed into Dodger dugout as he left the playing field.

Bithorn's maneuver brought him a $25 fine from Ford Frick, league president, and the sympathetic Cubs offered—none too seriously—to aid Hi in his hour of financial crisis.

The chief lament heard in the Chicago dressing room was that Bithorn's lack of control on the pitching mound was still evident when he threw at the Dodger bench. He didn't wing anyone there.

Wilson, scowling blackly, complained "those Dodgers have chased every other club in the league outta their park at one time or another, but not us. I just hope they try to start something again."

Then brightening, he laughed: "Did you see Bithorn before yesterday's game? When the second infield was practicing, I mean. He was right out there at first base, in front of the Dodger dugout. I'll bet he was just hoping somebody'd start something."

Tax Bill Sponsors

ing off income earlier than through the present practices. Q. How much will be withheld each payday?

A. It will depend on the exemption of each individual. For example, a married man with one child would have $34.50 of his salary exempt on a weekly basis. The deduction from this paycheck would be 5 per cent of the difference between that and his weekly salary. Beginning in 1944 it would be 10 per cent.

Amounts exempt from the deductions are, roughly, the personal exemption and dependency allowances increased by ten per cent. This total is then divided by the number of pay periods. The ten per cent is an arbitrary allowance for ordinary deductions.

Held as Credits

Q. Will the deductions be held as credits against future taxes? A. Yes, the employer will deduct the amounts from pay checks or pay envelopes, keep them in a separate fund, remit to the treasury quarterly, and give the employee a receipt at the end of the year. Thus of the individual's tax normally is $200 and $95 has been withheld, the balance due in cash on the next March 15 will be $105.

Q. Won't there be a doubling back of income payments next year?

A. Yes, in 1943, taxpayers will be paying off their 1942 income tax in lump sums or quarterly payments and at the same time will be subject to deduction from paychecks for the 1943 tax.

Beauty Preparations of Milady to Be Curtailed

Washington, July 17—(AP)—Milady got word today that her beauty preparations—lipsticks, nail polish, face powder, rouge, bubble-bath and cleansing lotion—would be sharply curtailed to make more chemicals available for the war effort.

The War Production Board established manufacturing limits on most types of such preparations yesterday, and also served warning on the man of the household that his after-shave lotion and other toiletries would be limited hereafter.

Officials said the order would result in a 17 per cent saving of critical material used in various rouge and lipstick containers by requiring that manufacturers who make as much as they did last year must put the products up for sale in only 90 per cent as many packages.

Soap Makers Ordered to Maintain Products

Washington, July 17—(AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson today embarked on a new field of consumer protection, ordering soap producers not to change the size or quality of soaps sold throughout the country.

The order, called "commodity practice regulations number one," will guarantee to consumers that "the $500,000,000 they will spend this year on soap will buy at least as much as it does at present and that the quality will not be debased," Henderson said.

The edict applies only to manufacturers, effective July 21, but householders benefit through the fact that retail prices of soap are controlled by the universal price ceiling.

Detention of Kankakee Italian Recommended

Danville, Ill., July 17—(AP)—Detention of James Luntini, 57, of Kankakee, an Italian citizen, was recommended today by the Alien Hearing Board for the Eastern Illinois District.

The board, in its first meeting, said Luntini was arrested a week ago with a loaded gun in his possession. It added that he had turned in another gun after Pearl Harbor, that he had been convicted several times as a bootlegger and that he had spent more than five years in prison.

The recommendation that Luntini be interned will be sent to Attorney General Biddle for final action. It was made unanimously by the board.

Commissions on Govt. Contracts Outlawed

Washington, July 17—(AP)—A measure outlawing commission fees on government war contracts was approved unanimously today by the house naval committee after the navy itself demanded swift action to "stop profiteering at government expense."

The action came after three days of public hearings during which representatives of four firms of "sales engineers" in the nation's Capital told of earning close to $2,000,000 during the last 18 months in fees for obtaining contracts for manufacturers throughout the country.

Robert E. Kline, an advisor in the office of Under-Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal, told the committee that it "should be obvious that something is very wrong and that quick action should be taken to stop profiteering at government expense."

Any Call for Wage

sorbed without boosting the price of steel.

See Fight in Congress

Reopening of the price control law to include wage stabilization almost certainly would start one of the bitterest fights congress has had in years, influential house members predicted today.

These representatives said the fight would center around Leon Henderson, the price administrator, and that before it ended Henderson might find himself shorn of much of his present authority.

High-placed lawmakers have intimated that President Roosevelt soon might ask congress to put the brakes on wage and salary increases to combat the increasing threat of inflation.

Such legislation, if requested as an amendment to the price control act, would be subject to hearings and consideration by the house banking and currency committee. This committee worked out the price control bill last year and many of its members profess no particular love for Henderson.

Suggests Appeal Board

Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich.), who is ranking Republican member of the committee and reflects the general views of its minority members, said the president would have no difficulty getting wage stabilization legislation through congress. But he predicted there would be a bitter fight over Henderson.

Wolcott said he favored creation of an appeal board to hear appeals from Henderson's rulings and to serve as a safeguard.

The reason congress has not taken the initiative, he asserted, was that Henderson told the committee last year wage stabilization was not necessary, and the administration has indicated its disfavor for any labor legislation.

Wolcott said he believed the president already had authority, under broad constitutional grants, to stabilize wages through the War Production Board and the War Labor Board but might prefer to have congress take the blame for any action which might be objected to by labor.

Wage Increases Granted

The War Labor Board called upon organized labor today to accept with "self-restraint and statesmanship" a wage stabilization policy which permitted an increase of 44 cents a day for "Little Steel" workers, instead of $1 asked by the union.

The policy, made public last yesterday in the board's decision on the case, was designed to maintain the purchasing power of hourly wage rates as of January, 1941.

"We are convinced," said the opinion of Chairman William H. Davis, "that the yardsticks of wage stabilization thus applied are fair and equitable and at the same time sufficient to prevent the cost of living from spiraling upward because of wage adjustments. We think they lead to a 'terminal' for the tragic race between wages and prices."

"On this basis labor will have made its move of self-restraint in the seven-point (anti-inflation) program. If all other groups likewise do their part we may expect to get and hold for the duration of the war stability of standards, and the freedom from apprehension that goes with such stability."

Pending a meeting with the steel union's policy committee in Pittsburgh today, Philip Murray, president of the union as well as the CIO, declined comment. Dr. George W. Taylor, writing the principal opinion on wages, said "This directive order calls directly upon the steel workers, and indirectly upon all labor, to accept the sacrifices which are their share under the national program for adjusting our domestic economy to the needs of total war."

Reckoned From Jan. 1, 1941. The policy would permit total wage increases up to 15 per cent, reckoning from January 1, 1941, to May, 1942, the approximate time the president's anti-inflation program was promulgated. The increase would cover an equivalent increase in the cost of living.

Though allowed less than half of its wage demand, the union largely won the rest of its case. The board granted union security in the form of a maintenance of membership clause combined with the company checkoff (collection) of union dues, and a minimum wage guarantee. The full union shop had been asked. The labor members of the board, outvoted 8 to 4 by the industry and public members, filed a dissent saying the board substituted "rhetoric for analysis" and went "all out for the inflation thesis compounded of conjectures and prophecies, fears and hysteria."

The four so-called "Little Steel" companies directly affected were Bethlehem, Republic, Inland and Youngstown Sheet & Tube. They employ about 157,000 workers represented by the CIO United Steel workers.

DISSATISFIED

Bethlehem, Pa., July 17—(AP)—The executive committee of five CIO United Steel Workers local unions today expressed dissatisfaction today with the War Labor Board's recommendation of a 44-cent-a-day increase for "Little Steel" employees and described the situation in this steel center as "tense and explosive."

The WLB decision is "causing definite unrest in the Bethlehem Steel plant here," the committee declared in telegrams to President Roosevelt, CIO President Philip Murray, and William H. Davis, WLB chairman.

Late British Air Offensive Short of Expectations

BY DREW MIDDLETON

London, July 17—(AP)—Devastating as it has been in spots, Britain's air offensive against Germany still is short of expectations and still below the peak of striking power it must—and will—develop to become a decisive factor, air experts said today.

The appraisal of these sources, who would not permit their names to be used, is based on the 47 nights since the RAF opened the allies' second front in the air with the mass attack on Cologne last May 30, the first of three 1,000-plane raids on Germany.

Associated Press tabulations show that beginning with the Cologne raid the RAF has made about 8,750 bomber-trips against Germany in fulfillment of Prime Minister Churchill's promise to erase Nazi industry "city by city."

Only two raids with a thousand or more bombers—against Emden and Bremen—have been made since the Cologne assault but British air sources say they left those cities so devastated that they can make little, if any, further contribution to Germany's war effort.

The air offensive, made at an announced cost of 261 bombers up to last night is regarded by informed British sources, however, as below expectations.

They said they believed the high hopes raised when the mass bombing of Cologne thrilled the United Nations appeared premature and "really intensive" attacks on industry in central and eastern Germany must wait for the longer nights of autumn.

These experts agreed that three reasons explain the RAF's failure to keep up the thousand-plane pace:

1. Exceptionally bad weather—Air officers say the night's must be "pretty nearly perfect" or else targets are obscured.
2. Drain on the RAF bomber command by operations elsewhere—The campaign in Egypt, the threat to India.

44 Americans Killed in Aleutian Fighting

Washington, July 17—(AP)—The Navy announced today in a resume of fighting in the Aleutians that Army aircraft recently dropped 56 bombs on Japanese shore installations at Kiska, one of three islands on which the enemy has landed.

American losses in the campaign to date were disclosed officially to include 44 Army and Navy men killed in Jap bombing attacks on Dutch Harbor and nearby Fort Mears and on an Army post at Fort Glenn about 70 miles west of Dutch Harbor on the island of Unimak.

The old station ship Northwestern was lost in the attack on Dutch Harbor early last month when it was hit by bombs and burned and some damage, although of a minor nature, was done to American shore installations.

The report originated from Clyde R. Swenson, superintendent of Fox Hollow Farms, former estate of John Jacob Astor III, which is about 11 miles north of the Roosevelt county home.

A nine state police teletype reported Swenson as saying he had seen six large parachutes drifting down near Fox Hollow Farms and his wife told Dutchess County Undersheriff Douglas Craspe she had seen a lone parachute "trying to manipulate it down" in woods northwest of the estate.

Keep the family a unit of true democracy.

Make the home more than ever before a source of love and strength.

Prepare to make sacrifices joyfully for the preservation of cherished values in home and country.

Realize that the family is a unit in the world-wide Christian fellowship.

AS A MEMBER OF THE PARISH—

Use the parish church for prayer and meditation.
Share in the corporate worship and witness of the parish.

Help the clergy in their plans to keep in touch with all members of the parish who are serving the country away from home, whether in the armed forces or in civilian occupations.

Offer hospitality to newcomers in the community.

Maintain support of the normal budget of the church and respond to its special wartime needs.

Continue responsibility for the regular activities of parish organizations. Remember that the Supply Working and the United Thank Offering are life lines for many missionaries.

racial or other minority groups. Work for mutual understanding.

Join with others in studying the community and in taking action to correct any failures in it of the democracy we seek to preserve.

Increase knowledge and support of the agencies already active in promoting the social welfare of the community.

Assist with local efforts on behalf of the Red Cross, the United Service Organizations, and other agencies and services arising out of wartime needs; but see that this interest is in addition to, and not substituted for, support of normal peacetime community services.

AS AN INDIVIDUAL—

Keep in good physical and mental health, and help to maintain the morale of others at a high level.

Accept with understanding and good humor the many petty annoyances caused by changing conditions in regard to food, clothing, and other commodities.

U.S. Bomber Attack on Hankow Called Very Satisfactory

Chungking, July 17.—(AP)—A United States bomber attack on Hankow, great Japanese inland base on the Yangtze river, yesterday scored "very satisfactory results," a communique from Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters announced today.

Fighters escorted the bombers in the raid on Hankow and also in another on the Nanchang air-drome on July 8, the communique said.

The fighter-escorted bomber attack on the Hankow waterfront was the fourth by the United States air force in China since it took over the work of the Flying Tigers of the AVG. The previous attacks on the river port were on July 1, 2 and 6.

"It is now learned that during an attack on docks in the Japanese concession at Hankow July 2, twelve 100 kilogram (220-pound) bombs landed on the docks and warehouses and there were several near misses on ships", the communique said.

Japs Surprised

"On July 3 allied bombers led by Major William E. Basye, with a fighter escort led by Squadron Leader John R. Howard, attacked Nanchang air-drome. The Japanese were taken completely by surprise. Runways were damaged and two hangars were seriously damaged. Three planes trying to take off as well as several planes parked on the field were destroyed. One enemy plane trying to intercept our formation was shot down. One of our fighters was lost but the pilot was saved. There was no damage to our bombers.

"On July 16 allied bombers with a fighter escort attacked the waterfront at Hankow with very satisfactory results".

Squadron Leader Howard is from St. Louis, Mo.

125,000 Tons of Scrap Metal To Be Collected in State in Six Weeks

Chicago, July 17.—(AP)—The drive to obtain 125,000 tons of scrap metal from the cities and farms of Illinois in the next six weeks will be inaugurated in Springfield next Tuesday, Robert Ticken, chairman of the Salvage Committee, Illinois State Council of Defense, reported to Governor Green today.

Ticken and George Eisenberg, vice chairman of the committee, will be hosts at a luncheon to committee members, their advisory groups, and National Leverone, head of the bureau of industrial conservation, WFB, for Illinois. Governor Green will attend.

In response to the WFB's request for 100,000 tons of scrap metal, Ticken and Eisenberg said they would salvage 125,000 by Sept. 1. The need for the scrap is imperative, they said, if steel mills in war production are to be kept operating anywhere near capacity.

Standard Oil Co. Must Pay $60,000 Illinois Sales Tax

Springfield, Ill., July 17.—(AP)—Circuit Judge L. E. Stone has ruled that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana must pay approximately $60,000 in Illinois sales taxes in a case which may have a far-reaching influence on state tax collections.

Judge Stone ruled yesterday that the oil company must pay the state's sale tax on products delivered in the state, even though the action of transferring title took place outside of Illinois.

The Standard Company contended it was exempt from the tax because the title passed from seller to buyer in Indiana even though solicitation of business and delivery took place in Illinois. Judge Stone held the transaction was taxable because most of the selling operations actually occurred in Illinois.

Seventy-five suits involving similar claims are pending in Sangamon county Circuit court and thousands of dollars are impounded in the protest fund of the state treasury pending settlement of the litigation. Attorneys indicated the decision would be appealed to the state Supreme court.

Tavern Operator Is Held for Murder of Pope County Deputy

Metropolis, Ill., July 17.—(AP)—As a precautionary measure, J. O. Mitchell, tavern operator of Golconda, was brought to the Massac county jail today for safekeeping in connection with the fatal shooting of George Watkins, constable and deputy sheriff of Pope county.

Sheriff Lon Walker of Pope county, who witnessed the shooting, moved Mitchell to the jail here because of unrest and high feeling among Golconda residents. Walker said the deputy sheriff was attempting to serve an execution on a debt at Mitchell's tavern near Golconda when Mitchell fired a .12-gauge shotgun.

A coroner's jury which convened soon after Watkins died late yesterday in a Metropolis hospital said "he came to his death from gunshot wounds fired by J. O. Mitchell." The jury also recommended that Mitchell be held for action by the Pope county grand jury.

Gallup, N. M.—(AP)—World War II has brought a new worry to the medicine men of New Mexico's ancient Zuni Indian Pueblo.

Preparations are going forward for supplications to the gods for rain for their crops and for all crops in general, but the caciques fear that the deity may be slow in answering their prayers as long as the world is at war.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Sacredness of Life and Responsibility For Fellowman Perceived by Prophets

By WILLIAM E. GILROY
Editor of Advance

To the old question whether man is more influenced by heredity or by environment, the story of Cain and Abel offers no answer. Here were two who grew up under the same conditions, with the same parents, and apparently with the same influences; yet one went the way of wrong and became a killer, while the other, choosing the right way, was the victim of his brother's jealous wrath.

Such facts are reproduced in almost every generation. From the same country, the same town or community, the same parents and the same environment, come those who, according to their choice, rise to higher things or go down the path of degradation. Good and evil are almost inextricably interwoven in human life. They are inevitably surrounded with mystery, but the one thing that is sure is that we do see that choice has something to do with character and with destiny.

The origin of Cain's hatred of Abel, or the circumstances that account for it, would seem to be artificial or trivial, but perhaps there is a deeper significance than appears. Blood sacrifice is historically closely associated with religion, and it entered into the ideas of the early Hebrews, as we see in the story of Abraham's temptation to sacrifice his son Isaac. Why was Cain's offering of the fruits of the field less acceptable to God than Abel's offering of the firstlings of his flock? Perhaps the ancient conception of sacrifice accounts for the distinction, but this itself may have been rooted in the fact that to give the firstlings of the flock constituted a much deeper sacrifice and real gift than to offer the fruits of the field which might in themselves be perishable.

What is very necessary in reading such lessons as this is to realize that these stories have a moral and spiritual significance far beyond that of historical events. We must realize that before the Bible could be written it had to be experienced. There are moral conceptions that, as they were originally perceived by saints and prophets, might be compared to the products of great inventive genius in the physical world.

Examine this lesson for a moment to see these moral conceptions, and if we can wipe out the sense of the development that has taken place during the ages we can grasp with some reality what it meant for men originally to perceive these things. They were spiritual discoveries. The first is the sacredness of human life. The second is the fact that man has responsibility for his fellowman, that he is his brother's keeper. Millions of men have not discovered that and will not acknowledge it today! yet the writer of this chapter of Genesis, ages ago, perceived it clearly and set it down in an unforgettable story.

Along with this is the idea of mercy. Even for Cain, who had committed a foul murder, there was the possibility of forgiveness and of protection from the vengeance of his fellowmen. The mark of Cain was the mark of sin and of violence, but it was a mark also that was intended to protect a sinful man and a criminal from the vengeance of his fellowmen. How far ahead of our life today in a world at war was the keen man of spiritual and moral vision who wrote this chapter of Genesis, and how far the world may have to go before it catches up with him!

Barrett Will Prosecute Several Hundred Under Sales Tax Legislation

Chicago, July 17.—(AP)—In the first such action to be taken against several hundred merchants, Attorney General George F. Barrett obtained warrants yesterday charging a tavern and a liquor store operator with criminal violation of the retailers' occupational tax act.

Two Chicagoans were charged with failure to file sales tax returns, the one owing the state $6,235.65 in back taxes and the other, $4,781.28.

Barrett said criminal charges under which he would prosecute several hundred merchants included failure to file returns of gross income and taxes, filing fraudulent returns, failure to keep records and operating without a certificate of registration.

He declared the penalty for criminal violation of the act was a fine of $25 to $1,000, six months in jail, or both.

MUSKRATS HELP INDIANS

The Pas, Man (AP)—Muskrat catching on the Summerberry Conservation project near this northwestern Manitoba town provides Indians with a revenue of $25 monthly and keeps many Indian families off relief, government officials announced.

The muskrat skins are graded by the government and then auctioned to buyers. The catch is restricted to 300 rats a year, yielding an average annual income of $200 to persons given permits to catch the animals each spring. Indian game wardens are employed on the 170,000-acre project to guard against poaching.
